

Pasadena Dec 30/41

My Dear Friend,

James B
Corydon, of New Bedford, wished me to say to you that he should be most happy to meet you at the Depot this P.M. at 3 o'clock and take you & your Luggage under his "protecting con."

I hope you will have a pleasant and successful time. Be con-ful & not go, in your expec-ment to do good, beyond your strength.

I shall have a very important communication to make to you, "inter nos", on matters and things, deeply interesting to us both before a great while. Till then keep your judgment suspended in relation to some unnamable subject.

Accept my thanks for your disinterestedness & believe me your friend
Most truly
J. A. Collins

The apologist for slavery is equally as guilty as the slaveholder; for he thus biddeth him God speed, in partaker of his evil deeds."

Dec, 41

John A. Collins

Short note not important

Anne W. Weston
Chaucy Place

Boston

By W. C. Niles